

Arielle Wellman, MHA, RT(T)

Arielle Wellman is a dedicated Radiation Therapist at Sutter Health, where she has honed her skills and expertise over the past 8 years. With a Master's of Healthcare Administration from National University, Arielle discovered her passion for leadership and has since been committed to fostering professional growth within the healthcare field. As an active volunteer with the California Association of Healthcare Leaders, she continues to support the development and drive of future leaders. Outside of work, Arielle enjoys physical fitness and exploring tropical destinations with her family.